Messrs EDES and GILL,

Please to insert the following, and you'l oblige your constant Reader, A.

ALL the letters from England by the last ships, agree in this, that the late M. (a) had acquainted the several American Governors, particularly Mr. B---d (b) that it was his Majesty's gracious intention that every thing might be done by them which had a tendency to compose the minds of the people, greatly irritated and inflamed by the rash and unconstitutional attempts which had been made on their rights and privileges in the late times :--and so to give them such ideas of his Majesty's tenderness and concern for the peace and welfare of his most distant subjects, as might lead them one and all not only to forgive and forget what was passed ;--but to the most significant expressions of loyalty and affection to the best of Kings ; and of their confidence in the wisdom and mildness, as well as justice of the administration.

And who would not have thought that all those Gov--rs, more especially such as had been treated even with an extravagant generosity, would have received such gracious intimations, with a joy equal to what their desires and intention to promote the good of those under their care ought to be---or that only considered as politicians they would most eagerly have embraced so favourable an opportunity of gaining and securing the esteem and love of the people, without giving the least umbrage, but rather satisfaction to the Ministry; and to what causes shall we assign a temper and conduct in any one of them, so intirely the reverse? Was it a deep rooted prejudice and hatred to the people they govern ; or a design to recommend themselves still further to the anti-american and most injudicious Mr. G-----le, who they flatter'd themselves would soon drive away the striplings, and have it again in his power to reward his tools answerable to the zeal shown in supporting him and his detested projects, and imbarrassing the measures of his successors ?---or was it with design to feed and increase the late flame, and from thence inforce the necessity of a military power, to curb the people, and protect themselves in their plunderings ? I presume not to say.

It is sufficient to my purpose to look at home, and not abroad, and to deal out facts rather than conjectures. We may venture to affirm that all ranks, orders, and perswasions, in this province, received the news of the repeal of the stamp-act, as became a wise and grateful people---all strove who should be foremost in seconding the designs of his Majesty and his Ministers ;---the general assembly came together the last May with this temper, and an agreeable prospect was presented ; but how soon did the scene change ? and how astonished were we to hear that the first act of the assembly in making choice of Mr. Otis for their speaker, a gentleman as popular with us in degree, as Mr. Pitt is in Britain, was disapproved of by his Excellency ?---that he had presumed to intermeddle with the free elections of the house, by giving it out before the choice that he would shew himself G---r, if they did not intrust their privileges with some gentlemen whose posts and employments almost intirely depended on his favor ; and who accordingly did play the G---r, or rather the fool, by negativing for no other reason yet given, in the most unprecedented manner, no less than six gentlemen chosen---thus weakening his Majesty's council at so important a crisis with the loss of an Otis, father to the speaker, an old and able senator, who had greatly aided administration in times past---a Sparhawk, long vers'd in public affairs, of great connections, and united in marriage with the only child of the late Sir William Pepperrell, who to the everlasting honor of himself, family and these provinces, first subdued Louisbourg, for the re-obtaining of which, France relinquish'd the fruits of an expensive and successful war, and restored peace to Europe----and of four worthy and patriotic gentlemen sent up from the house. (c) Nay, some of his little tale-carriers, who, together with his dirty tale-bearers, do often compose a sort of a privy Council, (d) had the effrontry to give out,---that their master came to the Board that morning with intention, that a Br---le, a Ro--d and a G--y &c. should have increased the number of the negatived---foolishly expecting, that they and the other preserved, would be so flutter'd with the apprehension of the danger they had escaped, as would prevent their being masters of themselves, before a new election.

But, as if all this was not sufficiently provoking to a free people, who tho' easily drawn can never be drove ; we are told for truths, that some capable gentlemen, who were not for enforcing the stamp-act, (f) particularly the worthy elder B----y (g) have been passed by in nominations, tho' recommended by the voice of their counties,---while such have been noticed whose late conduct had rendered them excessively unpopular and odious ; and further, that very lately some military gentlemen in the a--s--y, who had voted and acted agreeable to their sentiments and consciences, one of whom is the very modest & sensible col. Ward, have been dismiss'd from that service, and one other in the a--s--y, who had the faculty of pleasing, tho' only a captain in the regiment, advanced to his post.

Perhaps these dismissions were intended as a particular compliment to general Conway, and in humble imitation of the courageous Mr. G---le, (k) who adventured to treat that honest tho' military patriot in the same way---or to show the assembly, and their constituents, the folly of their late conduct, in not choosing some great dependents, into the C---l, and the wisdom and expediency of sending such to the House and Board for the future, as hold military, honorary, or lucrative posts under so temperate, capable and faithful a representative of his Sovereign.

Indeed Mr. B----d's printed speeches and messages to both houses of assembly need only to be read, and his subsequent conduct considered, in order to discover how intirely he has misconstrued his Maj--y's intentions so clearly and tenderly expressed by that early friend to America General C--w--y, (l) and the difficulties he has irreverently thrown in the way of a speedy compliance with his Majesty's mild recommendation respecting the sufferers in the late times---which matter now labours, from the like causes, and agitates honest minds, as did that of the repeal of the stamp-act. But it is much wish'd for, and still believed, that the friends to the union and peace of Britain and her colonies, will be finally able, notwithstanding every imbarrasment, to bring this affair to as agreeable and happy an issue. (m)

In short, the conduct of a certain gentleman in these and innumerable other instances, has in the words of truth and soberness, intirely lost him the confidence of the people, and rendered him more unpopular and contemptible than any other has been since the days of Sir Edmund Andros to this time.---The discerning part of the community cannot but conclude, that he is about as fit to govern a large province, as was the late Czar of Muscovy, that extensive empire---their political catechisms must certainly be the same, and their heads, tho' to do justice to that unfortunate Prince, not their hearts, cast in one and the same mould, if we may judge by the impressions. By the Packet arriv'd at New-York, we have the following further Advices, viz.

LONDON, September 13.

We are told that a great perſonage has expreſſed very high diſpleaſure at a late exciſion made to Paris.

An Edict has been publiſhed by order of the Grand Signior throughout all the Turkiſh Provinces, ſetting a price upon the head of Prince Heraclius, and alſo on thoſe of the chief ringleaders of the rebellions in Egypt and the Iſle of Cyprus.

In caſe the parliament take the Eaſt India affairs into conſideration, ſo far as to claim the Oriental conqueſts, a gentleman (well known in North-America a great many years) of an enterpriſing genius, and great experience, is already talked of, as the perſon who will be ſent to the Eaſt Indies in quality of Governor and Commander in Chief of the Britiſh territory in Indoſtan, and of all his Majeſty's forts, garriſons, and troops in Bengal, on the coaſts of Malabar, and Coromandel, and in the adjacent iſlands.

The Indian Chiefs having finiſhed their buſineſs here, will embark, in a few Days, on board a merchant ſhip in the River, for New-York.

A Board of Treaſury, we hear, is ſpeedily to be called to conſider on the expediency of granting a temporary exemption from duties, to the unfortunate town of Bridge-Town in Barbadoes.

September 15. We are aſſured, that the preſent tour of Europe now taking by a certain great Prince, is entirely from political motives, whatever reaſons may have been aſſigned to the contrary.

September 16. By a gentlemen lately arrived from Morlaix in France, we are informed, that while the ſhip he was on board of lay there, he converſed with twelve Engliſh carpenters, every one of whom told him they had double wages paid them to what they received when in the Engliſh dock yards; and that there was a great demand for ſhip carpenters.—Such encouragement given by the enemies of Great Britain ought to awaken the attention of thoſe in power.

Sept. 17. We hear that Sir George Pocock, Knight of the Bath, has reſigned his poſt as Admiral, and all his other places whatever, and is gone a Broad.

It is ſaid that upwards of twenty thouſand ſoldiers have been inliſted in this kingdom for the Hon. Eaſt India company's ſervice, ſince the commencement of the late war; which is an extraordinary drain of laborious hands, and in a real loſs to the nation, when it is conſidered that ſcarce one in four hundred ever returns home.

Sept. 18. Monday laſt Admiral Broderick was cut for a cancer in his mouth, by Surgeon Gataker, and was yeſterday in a fair way of recovery.

They write from Quebec, that upwards of three hundred Engliſh traders are now ſettled at Fort Illinois on the Miſſiſippi, maintaining a friendly intercourſe with the ſeveral Indian nations for ſome hundred miles round the country.

Tueſday his Royal Highneſs the Duke of York ſet out from his houſe in Pall-Mall to pay a viſit to the Marquis of Rockingham, at his ſeat at Rockingham-caſtle in Yorkſhire.

Sept. 19. Wedneſday the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham had the Honour of a private conference with his Majeſty for two hours, at the Queen's Palace.

Yeſterday the Right Hon. the Earl of Chatham ſet out from his houſe in Bond-ſtreet, for Bath.

We hear all the ſuperfluous places and ſinecures will be laid aſide, and, upon an exact calculation, is will be a ſaving to the government of 52,000l. per annum.

Not only the officers belonging to the garriſons of Minhon and Gibraltar, but thoſe of the regiments quartered at Quebec and other ſtations in North-America, have received very ſhort notice to join their regiments.

We hear orders are ſent over to Ireland for the ſeveral regiments on that eſtabliſhment to be augmented.

They write from Gibraltar, that his Excellency Governor Irwin had received a packet with extraordinary diſpatches from England, the contents of which were the next day communicated to the commander of his Majeſty's ſhips of war in the Bay.

The Dutch are reported to be putting ſeveral capital ſhip of war into commiſſion, and raiſing marines in all their ſea ports.

Both houſes of Parliament will meet in November next for diſpatch of buſineſs, that the ſeſſion may end in March, or beginning of April, ſo as to allow the members to have full time to meet their conſtituents before the general Election, which will be in May next.

It is ſaid a late Great Commoner has already given his opinion, that all miniſterial influence at next general election ought to be laid aſide, and to allow the electors to chooſe for themſelves, as he had oft found from experience they were the moſt rational judges of their Repreſentatives.

It is ſaid Sir Charles Saunders, Knight of the Bath, will have the command of 20 ſhips of the line.

It is reported, that the Manilla ranſom will ſhortly be paid, both principal and intereſt.

It is reported that a formidable fleet of ſhips of war will ſhortly rendezvous at Spithead.

Notwithſtanding the precipitate reſolutions of the Colonies, to erect a ſtatue of the late Mr. Pitt in every one of them, ſeveral gentlemen well acquainted with the Americans, are now making betts in town, of one hundred guineas to twenty, that Lord Chatham's ſtatue will not be erected on that continent; and yeſterday a bett was made at Arthur's, of 200 guineas to twenty.

By letters from the Eaſt Indies there is advice, that the Viceroy of Manilla has at preſent an army or, more properly, a militia, of well diſciplined black troops, in Spaniſh pay, to the number of fifteen thouſand foot and ſix thouſand horſe.

It is confidently ſaid, that the affair of the Antigallican privateer will be revived.

Orders are ſaid to be iſſued from the War Office for a great number of recruits to be raiſed with expedition to compleat the regiments of foot ſtationed in North-America.

A plan of Lord Chatham's, for uniting the colonies with the mother country, will certainly next ſeſſions be laid before both Houſes of Parliament.

According to letters from Madrid, one reaſon alledged for the non payment of the Manilla ranſom is the delay of the expected fleets from New-Spain, which has rendered the Treaſury very bare of money.

The recruits now raiſing in the Electorate of Hanover, intended for the Britiſh American Colonies it is ſaid, are to be compleated to ten thouſand men.

It is ſtrongly reported that the iſland of Porto Rico in the Weſt Indies, or ſome other important Places on the Spaniſh Weſtern Empire, will be demanded of the Court of Madrid, to be delivered into the Hands of the Engliſh, by Way of Security for Payment of the Manilla Ranſom, in caſe our Miniſters meet with any further Procraſtination in that Affair.

We hear from Portſmouth, that it is rumoured there a conſiderable Naval Force will ſoon ſail from thence for America. Part of which is to join Commodore Palliſer on the Banks of Newfoundland.

His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter, in his late Voyage up the Channel from Guernſey, &c landed we are told, incognito at Calais, attended by Colonel Ligonier, &c but upon his being diſcovered before the uſual Honours could be paid him, his Royal Highneſs reimbarked, and landed at Dover; here too he was ſoon diſcovered, and before he could ſee the Caſtle, the Guns were fired; on which his Highneſs left the Town, and proceeded to Canterbury and from thence to London.

This Day the Earl of Briſtol kiſſed his Majeſty's Hand on being appointed Lord Lieutenant of Ireland.

We hear that ſome diſpatches of great importance were received on Friday from his Excellency Sir Joſeph Yorke at the Hague.

We hear orders will ſoon be iſſued for raiſing a regiment of highlanders or American ſervice.

NEW-YORK, November 3.

On Tueſday the 31 inſtant, about 11 o'Clock at Night, a Number of Soldiers, ſaid to belong to the 46 Regiment, entered into the Houſe of Caſper Hart, a Cartman, of this City; a very honeſt inoffenſive Man, and without the leaſt Provocation, on the poor Man's Side, cut and wounded him in a terrible Manner, and dragged him into the Street, ſo that it is next to a Miracle he was not murder'd, not content with uſing him in this Manner, they went to his Stable, and there hamſtrung his Horſe, the only Means he had for his Subſiſtance; on which the Guard was ſent for, they immediately came and made ſearch for the Perſon accuſed, and on entering a Houſe ſuſpected of harbouring Soldiers, they found the Soldier, whoſe Cloaths were ſtain'd with the Blood from the Wounds of the poor Man, he was immediately confined, and from the Endeavours of the Officers of the Army to aſſiſt the Magiſtrates, it is not doubted but he will receive condign Puniſhment.

Laſt Wedneſday came on before the Supreme Court of Judicature for this Province, a Cauſe in which Mr. Thomas White, of this City Merchant, was Plaintiff, and Capt. John Brown, of his Majeſty's Ship Hawke, Defendant; for the Seizure of a Ship and Cargo in December 1762; when after a Hearing of ſeventeen Hours, the Jury brought a Verdict for the Plaintiff, with £. 4046 Damages, and Coſts of Suit.

We have the Pleaſure to inform our Readers from good Authority, that his Excellency Sir Henry Moore, our Governor, has received Inſtructions from Home, to give his Aſſent to the bills that may be paſſed and preſented to him by the General Aſſembly of this Province, for the Emiſſion of Paper Currency, or Money Bills of Credit.

BOSTON, Nov. 13.

The following is an ANSWER of the Honourable Houſe of Repreſentatives to the SPEECH of His Excellency the Governor, made at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion.

May it pleaſe your Excellency,

YOUR Speech to both Houſes at the Opening of the preſent Seſſion has been repeatedly under the moſt deliberate Conſideration of the Houſe of Repreſentatives.

It was indeed, Sir, with great Reluctance, that the Houſe found themſelves under the Neceſſity of having Recourſe to your former Speech and Meſſage upon this Occaſion; but as you are pleaſed to refer us to them without ſaying any Thing to qualify them, the Houſe cannot help obſerving, That the Manner in which your Excellency has repeatedly propoſed a Compenſation to the Sufferers, has been derogatory to the Honor of the Houſe and in Breach of the Privileges thereof: That the Terms you have made uſe of, have been eſſentially different from thoſe, dictated to you, by His Majeſty's expreſs Command, ſignified in a Letter from his Secretary of State: That they tended to weaken the inherent uncontrouliable Right of the People, to diſpoſe of their own Money to ſuch Purpoſes as they ſhall judge expedient, and to no other: And that under theſe Apprehenſions, it is not improbable, ſome of the Towns may have framed their Inſtructions to their Repreſentatives, againſt a Compenſation out of the public Treaſury.

The Houſe, however, with the moſt dutiful and profound Reſpect, have attended to His Majeſty's moſt gracious and mild Recommendation; and obſerve that it is his pious and benevolent Intention, that not only a Compenſation ſhould be made to the Sufferers in the late Times, but alſo that a Veil be drawn over every diſgraceful Scene, and to forgive and even to forget the undutiful Behaviour of any of his Subjects in thoſe unhappy Times.

Confirmed in the Opinion, that an Indemnification of the Offenders is of equal Importance and Neceſſity with the making Compenſation to the Sufferers, and being ever ready with the utmoſt Chearfulneſs, to unite their Endeavours in promoting the wiſe and gracious Purpoſes of their rightful Sovereign: in Conformity to the Spirit of Mr. Secretary Conway's Letter, the Houſe have fram'd a Bill, entitled, An Act for granting Compenſation to the Sufferers, and of free and general Pardon, Indemnity and Oblivion to the Offenders in the late Times.

This Bill they have ordered to be publiſhed for the Conſideration of the ſeveral Towns, and humbly pray your Excellency would pleaſe to give them a Recels for that Purpoſe.

Saturday laſt Capt. John Atkins arrived here in 27 Days from Guadaloupe, but laſt from St. Euſtatia in 20 Days, by whom we have the following Account of the Damage done by the Hurricane on the 6th of of October laſt, viz. Engliſh Veſſels caſt away at Guadaloupe; a Brig. Chappel, Maſter, from Boſton or New-London; a Brig. Otne, Maſter, from Salem; a Sloop, Bradzwell Maſter, from Old York; a Sloop Allen Maſter, from Barbadoes; a Brig. Whipple Maſter from Newbury, loaded; a Schooner Parſons Maſter from Portſmouth New-Hampſhire. The above Veſſels are entirely loſt.

At Dominica, a Brig. Douſt Maſter from Boſton; a Schooner, Kent Maſter from Newbury; a Snow from Ireland, and two from Africa, all loſt. Capt. Elwell from Glouceſter run on ſhore at Nevis and loſt. At St. Kitts 9 Sail on Shore, but done from theſe Parts, as he remembers. At St. Euſtatia two ſmall Veſſels athore, and 15 miſſing that put to Sea in the Gale the 6th, and were not returned the 19th when he ſail'd. Two Brigs at Euſtatia, who were diſmaſted the 19th of Sept. in Lat. 30 one of which belonged to Boſton, the other drove out in the Gale and was not hear'd of. Seven Wrecks were ſeen athore at Anegada, by the Maſter of a Veſſel from Sir. Thomas's.

By Capt. Blake we learn, that there having been a Subſcription opened in London for the Relief of the Sufferers by the late Fire at Barbados, they had collected, by the 11th of September, 7211l. for that charitable Deſign; and as the Subſcription was ſtill open, ſeveral large Donations were expected from many opulent Corporations in England, as ſoon as they met.—The general Loſs of the Barbadians, as tranſmitted Home, amounted to 300,000l.

Monday Night laſt, the Wind being very high, a ſmall Veſſel laden with Bricks, belonging to Medford, and having two Men on board, foundered off the Entrance of Marblehead Harbour, whereby the Men were drowned and the Veſſel loſt.

Laſt Monday the Body of a Woman named Blakey was found floating in the Channel oppoſite the North Part of the Town: 'Tis ſaid ſhe was ſeen in the Streets about 4 o'Clock that Morning almoſt naked, but as no Perſon miſtruſted her Deſign ſhe was ſuffered to paſs unnoticed. It is apprehended that the long Abſence of her Huſband, and the Care of five ſmall Children, for the Support of whom ſhe has at Times expreſſed the greateſt Anxiety, being ſomewhat deſtitute of Means, threw her into a Delirium, which ended in this raſh Action.

We hear from Weſton, that laſt Sunday Mr Iſaac Jones of that Town had a Child baptiſed by the Name of William Pitt.

By Capt. Blake from London, we learn, that Capt. Smith in a Brig was to ſail from there for this Place in a few Days after him; and that the Captains Scott, Calef and Bruce, expected to get away the beginning of October.

BOSTON, NOVEMBER 17.

On Thursday last his Excellency was pleased to adjourn the Great and General Court to Wednesday the 3d Day of December next; having first made the following Reply to the Answer to his Speech at the opening of the Session, inserted in the preceeding Page of this Paper, viz.

Gentlemen of the House of Representatives,

IN the Letter of the Earl of SHELBURNE which I laid before you; you have a second Testimony from another of his Majesty's Secretaries of State, of the Tenderness and Affection towards the People under my Government, with which I have conducted myself during the late disputes, and therefore I shall make no other Answer to the ungenerous Insinuations in your Message of Yesterday, than by referring to your own Journals, from whence it will evidently appear, that it is from among yourselves, and not from me, that the Difficulties which have prevented your making a Compensation to the Sufferers, have arose.

I am very sorry that you have not already complied with what has been recommended to you: but it is some satisfaction to me, that you have laid a Foundation for compleating this Business, which I hope will not fail of Success. The Importance of the Affair, and the hasty Approach of the new Year, will not allow the Loss of a Day which can be saved; and therefore I shall make the Recess, which you desire, as short as possible. And that you may do the Business with as much Credit to yourselves as may be, I shall continue the Session until you can come to a final Determination.

Council-Chamber,
Nov. 13, 1766. Fra. Bernard.

In Council, November 13, 1766.

ON a Motion made to his Excellency in Council, and the unanimous Desire of the Council thereupon, That he would permit the Earl of SHELBURNE's Letter of the 13th of September last, (a Copy of which had been communicated to the Board) to be Printed,

The Governor gave Orders for Printing the same accordingly.

The said LETTER is as follows, viz.

WHITEHALL, September 13, 1766.

SIR,

I HAVE had the Honour to lay before the King, your Letters of the 29th of June, and 19th of July last, together with the Inclosures therein contained: And I have received His Majesty's Commands to communicate them to such of his Servants, as He thinks proper usually to consult upon his most important Affairs, as soon as the Season of the Year will conveniently admit of their Meeting, for this, and other Purposes.---In the mean Time, His Majesty is extremely sorry to observe any degree of Ill-Temper, remaining in his Colony of Massachusetts-Bay, or, that Points should be so improperly agitated, as to tend to the revival of Disputes, which every Friend to America, must wish to be forgotten.---They have seen the Parliament of Great Britain give due Attention to all well founded Complaints of the Provinces, notwithstanding they appeared to them, in some Parts, not so properly urged: and tho' the Legislature will, certainly, on all just Occasions, exercise and enforce its Legislative Power over the Colonies, yet, it cannot be doubted, but it will exert it with a due Regard to the Nature of their Connection with the Mother Country.

Upon this Occasion it is proper to observe, in general, that the Ease and Honor of his Majesty's Government in America, will greatly depend on the Temper and Wisdom of those who are entrusted with the Administration there: And that they ought to be Persons disdaining narrow Views, private Combination and partial Attachments.-----It is with great Pleasure, Sir, that I have observed the Manner in which you have conducted yourself, during the Disputes of the last Year, which I cannot do, without highly approving your Attention and Watchfulness, on the one Hand, to support the Authority of Government, and on the other, the Tenderness and Affection which appeared in all your Letters, towards the People under your Government.----A temperate Conduct founded on the true Basis of public Good, avoiding all unnecessary Reserve, where nothing arbitrary is thought of, and nothing unreasonable is required, must carry Conviction to the Hearts of the deluded, conciliate the Minds of all, and insure the Confidence of His Majesty's Loyal and Loving Subjects of America.

Upon these Considerations I am persuaded that the Assembly will, immediately upon their Meeting fall upon Measures to terminate all local Difficulties, which appear by your Accounts to have hitherto prevented that Compliance, which will be expected by Parliament with the Recommendations you have been required to make in Consequence of the Resolutions of both Houses.---It is impossible to conceive that they will suffer any private Considerations to interfere with their Desire of shewing a proper Sense of that paternal Regard which they have experienced from his Majesty, and of that Attention which Parliament has given to their Complaints, which can never be done with more Propriety, than by granting with the utmost Chearfulness, a just Compensation to those who have suffered by the late Disorders.

I am, with great Truth and Regard,
Sir, Your most obedient humble Servant,
SHELBURNE.

PHILADELPHIA, November 6.

Extract of a Letter from Cork, Aug. 27, 1766.

"You will have seen, o doubt, before this reaches you, that the Intercourse between America and Ireland is totally cut off, from the First of January next, by the 35th Section of the American Act of last Session, by the Word Ireland being omitted through mistake. A Gentleman of this Place, now in London, was the first who perceived it, and alarmed the People on this Side the Water; he has presented Petitions to the Lord Lieutenant from all the principal trading towns in the Kingdom, and his Excellency has given him the strongest Assurances, that it will be repealed as soon as the Parliament meets."

BOSTON, Nov. 17.

Wednesday the 12th Inst. the Rev. Mr. Hezekiah Smith was Installed Pastor of a Baptist Chuch in Haverhill. The Rev. Mr. Gans of New-York began with Prayer, and preached a Sermon suitable to the Occasion from Matth. 28. 20. to a crowded and solemn Assembly. The Rev. Mr. Manning of Warren, having interrogated the Church and Candidate, prayed and gave the Charge. The Rev. Mr. Stillman of Bolton gave the Right Hand of Fellowship, and made the last Prayer. The whole was performed in such a Manner, as to give high Satisfaction to so great a Concourse.
